CIM Level 6 Diploma in Professional Marketing

About CIM

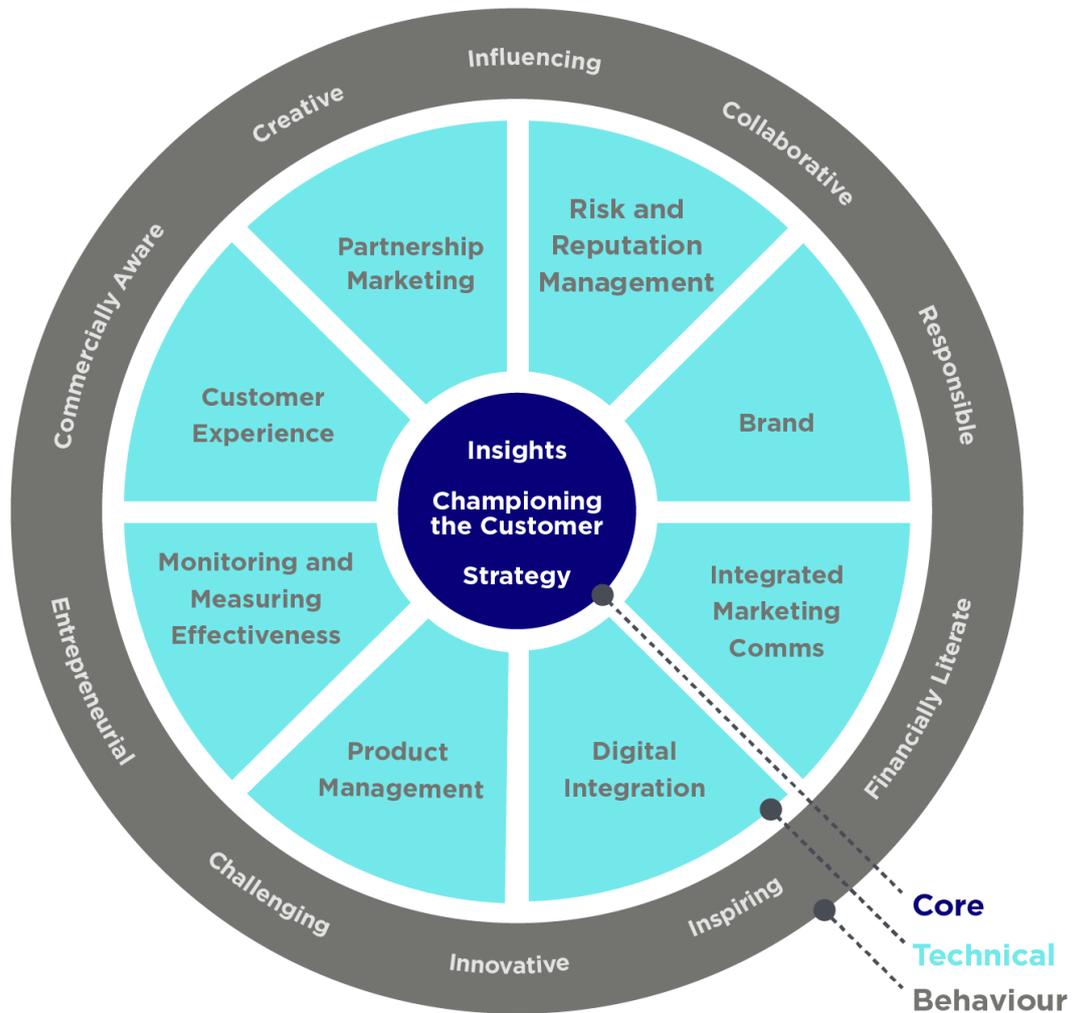

For over 100 years, CIM has supported, represented and developed marketers, teams, leaders and the profession. We are the world's leading professional marketing body with over 28,000 members worldwide. We believe marketing is the critical factor in driving long term organisational performance. Our mission is to create marketing advantage for the benefit of professionals, business and society.

In a world of increasing competition, transparency and change, finding a valued business advantage has never been as challenging. CIM strives for business leaders and opinion formers to recognise the positive contribution professional marketing can bring to their organisations, the economy and wider society.

With 120 CIM study centres, in 36 countries, delivering our world-renowned qualifications and over 80 training courses, we're uniquely able to improve marketing capability at an individual and business level.

Professional Marketing Competences

The Professional Marketing Competencies focus on three key competency areas: 'Core', 'Technical' and 'Behaviour'. The 'Behaviour' indicators reflect the demand for transferable skills and articulates a level of proficiency rather than seniority.

CIM Level 6 Diploma in Professional Marketing

Background

The Level 6 Diploma in Professional Marketing has been developed following extensive employer-led research across a range of sectors and size of organisation; qualification providers; academics and students.

The qualification

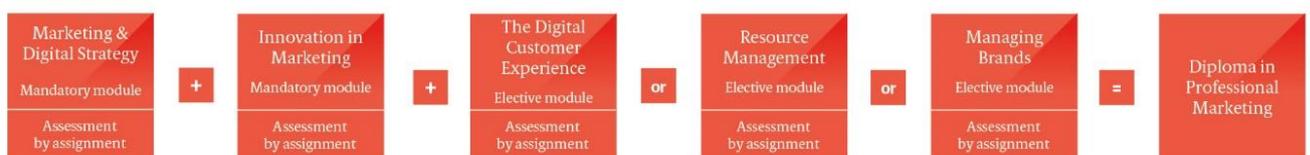

The CIM Level 6 Diploma in Professional Marketing is designed to offer progression from all CIM Level 4 qualifications and also links with the existing Level 6 Diploma in Professional Digital Marketing.

Successful completion of the CIM Level 6 Diploma in Professional Marketing will establish the knowledge, skills and understanding to be able to perform at a management level and to carry out an essential and successful professional marketing role within the workplace.

To achieve the CIM Level 6 Diploma in Professional Marketing, a pass in both mandatory modules plus one elective module is required. Currently there are two elective modules available, however, the intention is to continue to add more elective modules in response to changing marketplace needs, as required.

The qualification has been structured to reflect the need for a flexible and bite-size approach for today's professional marketer. Each module can be achieved as a distinct, self-contained award which, if required, can be built up to attain the full qualification.

The modules currently available at Level 6:

Who is it for?

The CIM Level 6 Diploma in Professional Marketing is aimed at the professional marketer working in an operational, supervisory or management role who wishes to develop their knowledge and skills across a range of areas to succeed and progress their career in marketing.

Some typical job titles include: Marketing Manager, Marketing and Communications Manager, Corporate Communications Manager and Brand Manager.

Entry requirements

One or more of the following is required to gain entry onto this qualification:

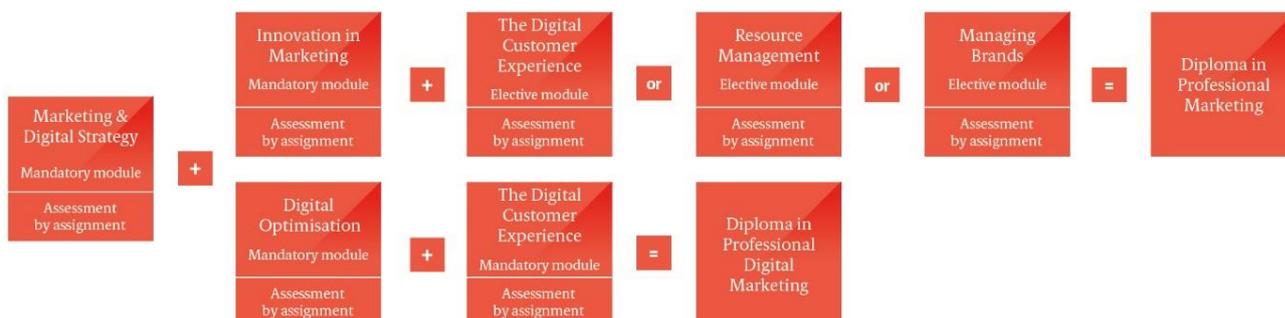

- CIM Level 4 Professional Certificate in Marketing or CIM Level 4 Certificate in Professional Marketing or CIM Level 4 Certificate in Professional Digital Marketing

Progression

Successful achievement of the CIM Level 6 Diploma in Professional Marketing or Diploma in Professional Digital Marketing will allow progression onto the CIM Level 7 qualifications www.cim.co.uk/qualifications

Credits, Guided Learning Hours (GLH) and Total Qualification Time (TQT)

Each module has been calculated as carrying 17 credits which equates to around approximately 170 hours Total Qualification Time and 150 hours Guided Learning Hours per module.

Credits – Each module has a credit value which indicates how many credits are awarded when a module is completed. The credit value also gives an indication of how long it will normally take to achieve a module or qualification. One credit usually equates to 10 hours of learning.

Guided learning hours (GLH) –The number of hours of teacher-supervised or directed study time required to teach a qualification or unit of a qualification.

Total Qualification Time – is the amount of time expected to take, on average, to complete the learning outcomes of a module to the standard defined by the assessment criteria and includes:

- guided learning hours
- practical and work-based learning
- assessment preparation time and
- assessment time

Modes of study

Enrolment at a CIM Accredited Study Centre is required to study the CIM Modular Pathway qualification. The following modes of study are available:

- face to face
- blended
- online
- revision support

Please visit <http://www.cim.co.uk/study-centres> for more information on which centres offer which mode of study.

How it is assessed

The assessment methodology for all modules contained within the CIM Level 6 Diploma in Professional Marketing are assignment based. All assignments are employer driven, practitioner based, relevant and appropriate for business needs.

In addition, assessments for all qualifications comply with regulatory requirements, are fit for purpose, fair, valid, reliable and manageable to ensure confidence in the standard of learner achievement.

Marketing & Digital Strategy – external assessment: an assignment based on a scenario and an organisation of choice.

Innovation in Marketing – external assessment: an assignment based on a scenario and an organisation of choice.

Resource Management – external assessment: an assignment based on a scenario and an organisation of choice.

Managing Brands – external assessment: an assignment based on a scenario and an organisation of choice.

The Digital Customer Experience – external assessment: an assignment based on a scenario and an organisation of choice.

How the assessments are delivered and when

There are three assessment sessions per year within the CIM Level 6 qualification. These will take place in December, March/April, and June/July.

Marketing & Digital Strategy, Innovation in Marketing, Resource Management, Managing Brands and The Digital Customer Experience will be assessed by assignment. Assignment briefs will be available for Accredited Study Centres to view six months in advance of the assessment session to which it relates.

How it is graded

Grading will be applied to each module as well as to the overall qualification.

Distinction	(D)	70-100
Merit	(M)	60-69
Pass	(P)	50-59
Fail	(F)	0-49

The percentage mark along with the corresponding grade will be issued for each module. To achieve the total qualification each individual module mark needs to be 50 marks or above.

The calculation of the overall qualification grade will be carried out based on an aggregate score of 3 modules out of 300. The following table outlines the marks required to secure the overall grade. The qualification certificate will contain the overall grade only (no percentage mark).

Grades acknowledged on overall certificate	Total marks required across three modules
Distinction	210 and above
Merit	Between 180 and 209
Pass	Between 150 and 179

When are results issued?

Results will be issued within 10 weeks of assessment sitting/submission. Results are made available to learners via e-mail and online via the MyCIM portal. Certificates will be issued for each module achieved and upon completion of the qualification.

Module specifications

CIM has produced individual module specifications for each of the Level 6 modules. These specifications detail the requirements of the module and include the module content. The module content covers:
